

World Mission Society

PO Box 371007, El Paso, TX 79937

To Whom it May Concern:

World Mission Society has used Mr. Johnny Giles of Business Development by Giles to assist in the Society's organizational profile, business development, and grant writing services. With full formal disclosure from Mr. Giles, he has helped in our public relations development, business growth plan and grant seeking opportunities. We have found the services of Mr. Giles to be effective, prudent and profitable for the Society.

It is the plan of World Mission Society to continue to follow the business outline of Mr. Giles and to use his ongoing services in our development of programs for the Society.

Upon request Mr. Giles has provided us full disclosure of his business background and capabilities. We find he has been careful to work within the parameters established by the Society for using his services. WE find his advise very valuable to our projects.

Yours truly,
